VALUING WOMEN'S WORK: PAY EQUITY IN ACTION

Tuesday, February 15, 2022 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM (Atlantic Time) via Zoom

Join us for a panel discussion about pay equity initiatives to end the undervaluation of women's work.

Atlantic Region

- 9 clubs: New Brunswick: 3, Nova Scotia: 4, Prince Edward Island: 1, Newfoundland & Labrador: 1
- Several clubs have highly successful book sales (one over $70K) for scholarships, bursaries, fellowships; one club set up a Charitable Trust Indigenous Women's Award; Total awarded about $120 K annually
- Libraries, Creative Arts, Advocacy & Community Outreach well supported by clubs; CT awards won in last two years
- Wrote two Resolutions that became CFUW Policies recently
- Strong history of commitment to CFUW (one club celebrating 100 years in 2024, 6 others over 65 years)
- Strong support for Life long learning through speakers & interest groups
- 50th Anniversary of a very successful club investment group (generally outperforming the TSX)—a charter member is still actively involved in the investment group

Membership Dues

- Two classes of Member – Full and Student
- Each Club establishes its own Membership dues but all Club dues include an amount payable to:
 - National CFUW
 - Provincial Council
 - GWI (if club is supportive)
 - Insurance
 - Local Club
- These dues are paid to your local Club.
